and all those who have lost their lives through war and violence.

We especially remember:

Father Edward Pelczar

May the Lord Jesus bring all our loved ones into His Kingdom.

*Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace.
Amen*

Parish Mission

~ by Theresa Leonetti O'Connor

In just two weeks, we are all being invited to a Mission. Now, I don't know about all of you, but when I hear the word "mission" the first thing I think about is Mission Impossible (cue the theme music), the extremely prolific, now seven movie franchise starring Tom Cruise - NOT exactly a Parish Mission by any means, although I can picture Monsignor McCormac zipping through the air like Tom Cruise as Ethan Hunt has done!

No, that Mission is completely Impossible for any normal human without computer generated graphics, that is! Our Mission is more Possible and yes, as Catholic Christians, we have a Mission! Check out these definitions for Mission:

1. An important assignment carried out for political, religious, or commercial purposes, typically involving travel.
2. The vocation or calling of a religious organization, especially a Christian one, to go out into the world and spread its faith.

But how do we sustain and even grow in our mission as Catholic Christians? Well, besides celebrating together as a community of faith on Sundays and praying always, we have the Seven Sacraments! The Sacraments are key stops on our journey towards Grace.

Our NEW Mission, if you are brave enough to accept it, is an invitation to learn, pray and grow in The Treasures of Our Faith: Seven Sacraments. It's being held Sunday, November 13th through Tuesday, November 15th in Church at 7:00 pm each night.

Fr. Tom McCarthy will preach at all the Sunday Masses, giving us a glimpse of what is to come.

Sunday, November 13th - The Sacraments of Initiation - Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation

Where do you feel comfortable and welcome? Why did Jesus like to party so much? Do you know who the lost member of the Trinity is? What do bowling shoes have to do with Confirmation?

These questions and many more will be pondered and hopefully answered on Sunday night. Will you be there to find the answers, or will you miss out and wonder forever?

Monday, November 14th- The Sacraments of Healing - Anointing of the Sick and Reconciliation

Why is Hollywood boycotting Vatican II? What is the difference between the 5th and 6th Commandments? Find out why the Fairless Hills Police Department will be flooded with calls on Monday night.

You do not want to miss this night - come and find out why!

Has something been weighing your heart down? Do you feel like you want to get something or two off your chest? There will be eight priests available to hear your story and offer you ABSOLUTION and freedom from your worry!

Tuesday, November 15th - The Sacraments of Vocation - Matrimony and Holy Orders

Find out why you should never get married.

Come and get your dish towel.

If you are alive, if you are male or female, if you are young or old, or somewhere in between!

If you are a bishop, priest, deacon, sister, brother, or lay minister, if you are married, divorced, widowed or single!

If you have said yes to your vocation or if you are still wondering what it is, you need to be in Church on Tuesday night!

Come and See what this Parish Mission is all about!
Accept the Mission to Learn, Pray and Grow in Your Mission as a Catholic Christian!

Come One, Come All!
Bring your Friends!
Bring your Family!

Baby Bottle Collection Ends THIS Weekend

Your support makes a difference in the lives of young mothers and their babies.

Thank you for your generosity!

SCRIPTURE

READINGS:

THE 31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading ~ Wisdom 11:22-12:2

The Book of Wisdom was written by a teacher who lived in Alexandria, Egypt, a center for Greek philosophy in the ancient world. It was written about 50 years before Christ and was the last book of the Old Testament to be written. After the first verse in today's passage, the author speaks directly to God and does so in poetic fashion.

Second Reading ~ 2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2

In his first letter to the Thessalonians, Paul told them to always be prepared for the Lord's coming in glory. Some of them became preoccupied with the date when the Lord would come. The second letter to this community addresses that situation.

Gospel ~ Luke 19:1-10

Jesus tells Zacchaeus that he must stay at his house. Jesus must invite Himself to Zacchaeus's house because Jesus must do His Father's will by seeking out the lost. In response to Zacchaeus's repentance, Jesus says, "Today salvation has come to this house..." Zacchaeus has accepted the good news that Jesus must give: God loves sinners and calls them to repentance.

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of October 30, 2022

Saint Charles Borromeo: The Good Shepherd
As the Cardinal-nephew of Pope Pius IV, Saint Charles Borromeo was one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in all of Rome. Yet he chose the extraordinary challenge of reforming the enormous Archdiocese of Milan to the pampered life of a Renaissance prince, and willingly spent himself in the service of his flock.

The Catholic Take on Halloween
Remembering the dead in purgatory, celebrating the Saints, and the Catholic perspective on Halloween.

Purgatory by Dr. Scott Hahn
This remarkable talk is an essential resource for answering the various objections that Protestants make to the Catholic Faith, including the authority of the Pope, the doctrine of Purgatory, devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints, the Sacrament of Confession, and the Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

Our parish has a FORMED subscription.

Vocation Awareness Week November 6-12, 2022

Across the United States, Vocation Awareness Week 2022 will be celebrated from November 6-12. This annual week-long celebration is designed to raise awareness of, and promote vocations to, the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life. During Vocation Awareness Week, the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood invites you to pray for those men and women in formation, as well as for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

During this weeklong celebration, the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood has planned several opportunities for families and communities to gather across the Archdiocese to pray for, and support, vocations.
