WHAT IS A DIRECTOR OF SOCIAL MEDIA?

By Jean E. Madden, Director of Social Media

As our parishioners would know, we have been working with the Catholic Leadership Institute as part of their Next Generation Catholic Parish Initiative. Through this endeavor, we have assessed our Parish's communications and effectiveness in light of our culture. We created a Parish Pastoral Plan with priorities and goals. And we are now implementing that Plan through our Faith Enrichment Series on the Eucharist, the expansion of Martha's Cupboard, and the formation of Small Faith Sharing Groups. Another outcome of our involvement with the Catholic Leadership Institute is the creation of the Director of Social Media position here at Saint Frances Cabrini.

In the secular world, the role of a Social Media Director is to promote the mission of a company or organization using the latest social media and communication tools available. According to Indeed.com, "the primary duty of a Social Media Director is brand development through the use of social media." Brand development is knowing your organization's core message and unique traits and sharing that information with others. What do we stand for? What is our purpose or reason for being? What makes us unique as a Catholic Parish? Brand development is also knowing your audience. Who are our parishioners? What are their daily lives really like? What are the best ways to communicate with them? How can we make our vision relevant to them? Who might be drawn to our Parish Community? How do we find them, reach out to them, share our vision with them?

As the Director of Social Media for Saint Frances Cabrini Parish, I will be discerning ways to effectively use technology to share our Parish Mission and our Parish identity. Working with the Parish Pastoral Staff and Parish Leaders, I will be creating content, scheduling posts, and monitoring metrics. But most importantly, I will be engaging with parishioners to foster spiritual growth and provide intentional missionary disciples from within our Parish for the evangelization of the teachings of Jesus Christ to the wider communities of Fairless Hills, Fallsington, and Levittown.

Pope Francis said, "The revolution taking place in communications media and in information technologies represents a great and thrilling challenge; may we respond to that challenge with fresh energy and imagination as we seek to share with others the beauty of God." I am looking forward to working with our Pastoral Staff and Parish Leaders to address the challenges of social media and to use all of the resources available to advance the goals of our Parish Pastoral Plan, drawing others to the awesomeness of our God as we bring Christ to the world around us.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!

God sends us on mission and provides us with the riches of his grace. We heard in the second reading that God has lavished the riches of his grace upon us. He calls us, and he accompanies us in that call. God will ask much of us, but let us not be afraid, for God's call is an invitation to live fully, richly, and generously.

Amos 7:12-15
Ephesians 1:3-14
Mark 6:7-13

In the first reading, Amos is called a prophet by a priest of Bethel. He responds that God took him from following the flock as a shepherd and sent him to prophesy. In the epistle, Paul writes that we are chosen and that God has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing. In the Gospel, Jesus sends the Twelve out two by two and instructs them to take nothing for their journey

Bereavement Support Group

There comes a time for each of us when we mourn the loss of a loved one. There are many aspects to the grief we feel and there is no time line for when we will feel better. It may be even more important to realize there is no right or wrong way to go through this pain. Each of us is different and will grieve differently, be patient with your feelings and with yourself.

That said, there are ways to help yourself handle this pain. One such way is a support group. A monthly support group meets at Saint Frances Cabrini on the 3rd Tuesday of the month. A support group is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief because they are experiencing it themselves. Come and see as we share with each other helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability and gain solid support each step of the way.

Next meeting:
7 PM, Tuesday, July 16, 2024

OUR PARISH COMMUNITY'S MARTHA'S CUPBOARD MINISTRY THANKS YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY IN HELPING THOSE IN NEED WITHIN OUR CIVIC COMMUNITY.

Do you hear the call someone else might have missed?

Most Catholics will tell you they don't see as many priests and religious sisters as they used to. Many wonder if God is calling fewer people or why people don't answer. While there are as many answers to that question as there are calls, there is something you can do to help.

If you know someone that you think might have a vocation to the priesthood or religious life—tell them so. It may be something they'd never thought of or they may just think they aren't worthy. Be specific about the gifts you see in them. Your encouragement could be just the thing to overcome their hesitation. Advise them to contact the parish office and we'll help them find what they need to discern God's call.

The TRUTH About the Shroud of Turin

The Shroud of Turin is the subject of a lot of rumors, myths and controversies — maybe you've heard some of them yourself and don't know what to believe. In this episode, Fr. Robert Spitzer offers amazing facts and stories about the Shroud.

What is the Anointing of the Sick?

Illness, suffering, and death are some of the greatest problems we face as humans. In the Anointing of the Sick, God offers us grace to strengthen us in illness and the priest can pray with us on behalf of the Church, in the midst of our suffering.

Prodigal Son

A look at the story of the prodigal son which highlights the rejection of the son's identity as son of his father.

An offering from the AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE and Ignatius Press

Rediscover Her Legacy of Faith, Education & Christianity

Dive into the remarkable story of Saint Katharine Drexel, a canonized Catholic saint from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, who chose a life dedicated entirely to serving marginalized communities. Born into a wealthy Philadelphia family, Katharine Drexel used her fortune to challenge societal norms and dedicate her life to education and racial healing. Our documentary, hosted at the majestic Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul, explores her transformative journey from a life of privilege to becoming a religious pioneer. Discover how Saint Katharine Drexel's upbringing, under the guidance of her philanthropic family, instilled a profound sense of responsibility and faith that ultimately led her to a radical religious vocation. Influenced by significant encounters with religious leaders and a pivotal meeting with Pope Leo XIII, she felt a divine call to devote her entire life to God's service, focusing particularly on Native Americans and African-Americans.
